

LISA A. FEIGENBAUM
INTERIOR DESIGNER

lfeigenbaum@stny.rr.com

As an interior designer, I develop concepts and original design solutions by creating sketches, layouts and details from written programs and discussions with clients. I have considerable experience in the use and application of architectural finishes and I have an extensive knowledge of material resources.

My current responsibilities include field surveying, planning, design development, furniture and finish selections, client presentations, rendering and production drafting of working drawings completed using AutoCAD release 14 and 2000.
